

Alexandru Popa-Antohti – professional bio

Alexandru Popa-Antohti is a Leadership Development Specialist and Executive Coach with 10+ years of international business and organisational experience across Europe and the US.

His focus area is designing, facilitating and embedding leadership development programmes in organisations, coaching senior leaders and teams in their shared endeavour to create value for the organisation and all its stakeholders. He is particularly experienced in working with blue chip tech-driven organisations operating in an agile environment.

Expertise: Making learning ‘stick’; Executive Coaching; Systemic Team Coaching; Action learning.

In his most recent role of Leadership Development Manager for Vodafone Group, he co-architected the global Performance Development learning programme - the first digital end-to-end offering of this kind for the organisation. This impacted over 8.000 leaders and over 100.000 employees in 26 countries.

Alexandru sits on the Board of the Association of Professional Coaching and Supervision (APECS) and he is a core member of the Future of Coaching Collaboration (FCC).

He brings a unique mix of technology and psychology, having studied a Bsc. in Computer Science and a MA in Psychology – Educational Sciences – Adult Learning. Alexandru is a Practising Executive Coach with the Association of Professional Coaching and Supervision (APECS), level A & B qualified with the British Psychological Society (BPS), accredited in using robust psychometric assessments like Hogan Assessments, EQ-i 2.0 and NEO / Primary Colours of Leadership. He also holds a Certificate in Systemic Team Coaching from the Academy of Executive Coaching.

Alexandru is a former trustee of an educational charity in Romania, where he co-designed a four-year curriculum of non-formal learning for high-school students. This has now been followed by over 17.000 students across the country.

Website: www.alexandrupopa.com

Email: contact@alexandrupopa.com

Phone number: +44 (0) 777 5542497